GENERAL REUSE/RECYCLE RESOURCES IN THE TWIN CITIES

Resource	Resource offering	Website
NEXTDOOR	Nextdoor allows communities to create private websites to facilitate communication among neighbors and build stronger neighborhoods. You can post items for sale or free, (similar to Craigslist) but your items will only be seen by people in your neighborhood. Be sure to “recommend” BridgingMN (Bloomington) or Bridging Roseville, so that more of our neighbors can learn about our organization!	nextdoor.com View on desktop or install app
RETHINK RECYCLING	Your go-to guide for waste and recycling throughout the Twin Cities including household hazardous waste drop-off sites, reduce, reuse and recycle resources and landfills and transfer stations.	rethinkrecycling.com
REUSE MINNESOTA	ReUSE Minnesota is a nonprofit trade association focused on bringing visibility to reuse, rental and repair sector through networking, publicity and events. They provide directories and listings of government, profit and non-profit organizations that provide reuse options.	reusemn.org
SECOND CHANCE RECYCLING	Mattresses and box springs are accepted for a fee at their Minneapolis location. Fee-based pickups at your curb are also available. At Second Chance Recycling, mattresses and box springs are dismantled and the materials are separated for recycling.	secondchancerecyclingmn.com 612.332.0664

IS THERE A FURNITURE BANK IN MY STATE?

Furniture banks are nonprofit 501(c)(3) organizations whose mission is to provide furniture to families struggling with poverty. Furniture banks collect donations of new and gently used furniture, and provide the furniture at little or no cost to families in need via referrals from social service agencies. Furniture Bank Association of North America website: furniturebanks.org
